24 Month Moratorium for pre-existing conditions

Definition: A period of 24 (twenty-four) months from the date of joining, or the date specified on the special terms section of the members' Certificate of Membership, that must have elapsed before claims for pre-existing conditions may be eligible under the plan.

After a period of 24 months continuous cover under the plan, pre-existing medical conditions may become eligible for benefit, if the member has not:

- a. Experienced symptoms,
- b. Sought advice,
- c. Required or received treatment, medication, or special diet in respect of such.

If the member has experienced any of the above, they will be required to wait a further 24 months from the last day of treatment, testing or medication and must meet the above criteria, before being eligible to claim benefit for the pre-existing medical condition in question and related medical condition. This constitutes the rolling part of the moratorium.

The final adjudication of pre-existing medical conditions, and of further conditions related to thereof or considered to be complications thereof by the Alliance Health Medical Advisory Board is acknowledged by all parties to be binding and final.
